

Photographic Images Policy

Playhouse Pre-school

Broadwater

Policy statement

At Playhouse Pre-School, we use photographic images to record children's progress and development during their time at the Pre-School. This policy details the procedures we have in place to safeguard children and adults and to ensure that images are not misused.

The policy is based on the key principles of the right to privacy and safeguarding children. It covers still, video, electronic and phone photographic images wherever they are used.

The good practice outlined below is intended to protect our children whenever photographs are taken and used. In addition, we have a duty under Human Rights legislation and the Data Protection Act 1998 to respect the right to privacy of people in photographs.

Typical Uses of Photographs

At Playhouse Pre-School, photographs are normally taken and used for the following Purposes:

- Displays of the children's work/activities
- Personal records of achievement for each child
- Pre-school web site and social media

Photographs are normally only taken by Pre-school staff. Parents and carers are only permitted to take photographs at, for example, the Christmas party in the Pre-school room. The Pre-school supervisor will make it clear at each event whether parents/carers are permitted to take photographs.

If a photographer visits the Pre-school to take portraits or to film a fund raising DVD, this is notified to parents separately and the photographer is supervised at all times.

Photographs are taken using the Pre-schools own iPads and are stored on the Pre-school computer and both are password protected. Staff do not store these photographs on their own computers.

Consent

Children are only photographed with the consent of parents/carers. Written permission is obtained when a child joins the Pre-school and the level of consent, including where the images may be used (e.g. personal records only, personal records and website) is noted for each child. The Pre-school Manager is responsible for ensuring that staff are all aware of any children who may not be photographed or where there is limited consent.

Children featured on the website will not be named.

Guiding principles for photographs

1. All children must be appropriately dressed
2. Avoid images that only show a single child with no surrounding context. Photographs of three or four children are more likely to include the learning context.
3. Use photographs that represent the diversity of children participating
4. Do not use images that are likely to cause distress, upset or embarrassment
5. Do not use images of a child who is considered vulnerable, unless parents/carers have given specific written permission
6. Avoid naming children in photographs or use first names only
7. Report any concerns relating to any inappropriate or intrusive photography
8. Remember the duty of care and challenge any inappropriate behaviour or language
9. Regularly review stored images and delete unwanted material
10. Photographs must not be taken in the toilet areas or in the nappy changing area
11. The use of staff camera phones in the Pre-school is strictly prohibited

Parents/carers should be made aware of the need for sensitivity and respect when filming/photographing events featuring their own child(ren). The Pre-school should monitor the use of cameras at these events and ask anyone behaving inappropriately to cease filming/taking photos.

If children photograph each other, for example, as part of ICT, the guidelines for these photographs are the same as the general guidelines detailed above.

Training and Portfolios

During training, it is sometimes necessary to compile portfolios with photographs of children. These photographs should not show children's faces and parental permission should be sought. Staff should act responsibly in compiling these images. The Pre-school Manager may ask to oversee the compiled images as part of the management process. For a portfolio compiled by the manager, the Deputy Manager may be asked to oversee the compiled images.

This policy was agreed by the staff of Playhouse Pre-School Broadwater.

Adopted on 26th March 2015 and will be reviewed annually.
